

Privacy Policy

At CrossBorder Solutions Inc, we respect the information you share with us and make every attempt to hold it securely and privately.

PERIMETERS

This policy applies to information obtained or offered to us, from individuals and corporate clients with whom we do business as well as third party vendors. The information may be given or obtained verbally or in written form.

DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

At no time will we disclose, share or sell any of your information to any outside agency or individual UNLESS it is required by law or we deem it necessary to the fulfilling of services that you have specially contracted us for.

We will only collect information for the purposes of properly administering your account and the services you request.

USE OF INFORMATION

CrossBorder Solution may chose to use your information to help us identify the types of services our clients are looking for in website content. We may also use this information to contact you from time to time with noteworthy news bulletins or with any new marketing initiatives we may develop. At any time, you may opt out from these mailings by simply emailing us with this instruction.

COOKIES

Like most websites, we may place a text file called a "cookie" in the browser files of your computer. This allows us the ability to customize information for some areas of our data base and can also allow us to link individual clients with their date profiles. The cookie only contains the information that you have already consented to provide and this then allows us to relate to you/your profile as unique. A cookie cannot read data off your hard disk or read cookie files created by other sites.

Privacy Policy – contd.

If you do not want us to use cookies, you can disable them by going to the Tools/Privacy section of your toolbar. Note however that by doing this, you may not be able to gain access to all areas of our website.

SECURITY

At CrossBorder Solutions, our data networks and storage are protected by industry standard firewalls and password protection systems. We regularly review our systems and policies with our technology partners to ensure all systems are fully updated to current standards. Access to our systems is strictly guarded and only authorized staff can gain access to client information.

LINKS TO EXTENAL WEBSITES

For your convenience we have inserted links to other websites within our own. When you click on an outside site, the only information that is transferred is the website address from where you came. CrossBorder Solutions is not responsible for any actions that result from your communication with an outside organization or website.

POLICY AMENDMENTS

Your use of this website constitutes your agreement to this privacy policy. CrossBorder Solutions reserves the right to change this policy at any time with or without notice to you.
